

THE NEW PLAYS

'Broadway Whirl'
An Intimate Affair.

BY CHARLES DARTON

There was no getting away from the chorus girls of "The Broadway Whirl" last night at the Times Square Theatre. Voicing the plaintive appeal, "Button Me Up the Back," they first swarmed along the aisles and climbed ladders to upper boxes, returned later to propose "Let Cutie Cut Your Cutie," and finally, as the audience headed for the doors, some of the merriest of the merry-merry got as far as the lobby.

Altogether it was a most intimate affair. Even Blanche Ring made her way down an aisle to get to the stage. In the excitement she lost part of a song, but she found it again she went along, so everybody laughed and let it go at that. Though Blanche Ring was not in the best of luck with her new songs, one of which struck a jarring note, she pleased the house with two or three old favorites.

Most of the fun was provided by Richard Carle, whose comic talents were employed as a waiter, a porter, clerk, a valet, a tenor, and so on and so on. Carle in all varieties was unfailingly amusing. He was aided by Charles Winninger, who also displayed his enduring affection for the saxophone and trombone. Pretty Winona Winter exhibited the prize legs of the skitless season, sang nicely and proved herself a clever ventriloquist. Jay Gould made himself useful in the dancing, and the lively chorus girls came out beautifully in a "rainbow" number.

Although "The Broadway Whirl" won't make the town dizzy it promises to do very well as summer entertainment.

CARUSO IS MET
BY NAPLES THRONG

Declares Voyage Greatly Benefited Him and He Is Completely Fit Now.

NAPLES, June 8.—Enrico Caruso, noted opera singer, arrived here today on the steamship Presidente Wilson and was met by throngs of friends and admirers anxious to have an exact account of his condition.

The singer appeared in a jolly mood and said he had come to have a perfect rest among his native people. He added that his voyage across the Atlantic had greatly contributed toward recuperation of strength and vigor and that he now feels completely fit.

He said he hoped to return to America ready to sing again next autumn.

TO REBUILD DREAMLAND.
Syndicate Buys Site, a Mass of Fire Ruins Since 1911.
A syndicate headed by William Greve and S. M. Gompertz has bought the old Dreamland grounds at Coney Island and will reconstruct the place this fall. The price paid was $400,000.

"TOOTS" BRICE THEFT
CLEARED BY ARREST

Two Men Said to Have Confessed Robbery of Chorus Girl—Loot Is Recovered.

ATLANTIC CITY, June 8.—The robbery of "Toots" Brice, a chorus girl last week, which resulted in a search of the baggage of thirty members of the chorus on the porch of a Pacific avenue hotel, was cleared up last night with the arrest of two men, who, detectives say, confessed the robbery and aided in the recovery of the stolen jewelry and furs, some of which had been sold.

The men gave their names as William Finner, thirty, of No. 224 Denning Place, Chicago, and John Bergen, twenty-four, of No. 214 East 115th street, New York. Both have been rooming at No. 24 Haddon Avenue here.
